DRILLED WELL.

Uniform Rank Companies
Put Through Test by Officers.

The two local companies of the Uniform Rank, Catholic Knights of America, held a battalion drill at St. Mary's Hall Tuesday night, at which the drill was conducted by three distinct times by Major Gen. Michael Reichert, Capt. Gus Kane and Capt. Ben Hand. Both companies were fully represented and made a splendid showing.

The officers put the companies through the evolutions by companies and then in battalion and were well pleased with the manner in which the men acquitted themselves. Quite a number of spectators witnessed the drill and were loud in their praise of the work done by the Uniform Rank. Interest in this organization is growing and it is probable that a new company will soon be organized to take in the eligible young men of St. Peter's, St. Louis Bertrand's and Sacred Heart parishes.

After Easter the Uniform Rank companies expect to give a public drill for the benefit of their friends and admirers.

GRIM REAPER

Takes Away John Kirwan
After Long and Useful Life.

John Kirwan, a native of Ireland and eighty-seven years of age, died at his home, 1005 West Jefferson street, Wednesday morning. Death was due to the usual ailments attendant upon old age. Mr. Kirwan came to Louisville in 1845 and had made this city his home ever since. When the Mexican war broke out, in 1846, he was one of Kentucky's first volunteer soldiers and served throughout the war. He was engaged in the grocery business more than fifty years. His widow and eight children survive him. They are John Jr., Edward, James, Miss Kate Kirwan, Mrs. Ed Larkin, Mrs. George T. Root and Mrs. Henry Birk. His funeral took place from St. Patrick's church yesterday morning.

Mr. Kirwan had a wonderful fund of anecdotes concerning his adventures both in America and foreign lands. He was as long as he remained in business was filled with friends and neighbors who never tired hearing him tell stories of the sea, of the Mexican war and of his trip to California in the early days of the gold fever. Mr. Kirwan was quiet and unassuming in manner and his death is mourned by many old friends. He was during his life in Louisville a devout member of St. Patrick's church.

URSULINE NUN DEAD.

Sister Alexia, of the Ursuline order, died at St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, Crescent Hill, early Wednesday morning. The deceased nun was a native of Louisville and was forty-five years old. Before entering the religious state she was Miss Mary Twickler, and was the daughter of the late George Twickler, of 839 East Chestnut street. Her mother, Mrs. Dora Twickler, her brothers, George, Henry, Joseph and John Twickler, and one sister, Miss Lily Twickler, survive her. Sister Alexia was a devout and zealous nun and for several years had given all her time and attention to the care of the orphans at St. Joseph's Asylum.

FATHER AHMANN'S SUCCESS.

Rev. Father Ignatius M. Ahmann, formerly pastor at Carrollton, now pastor of St. Aloysius' church at Covington, has announced the following Trustees of the congregation for the ensuing year: John Busner, Jr., secretary; William Rube, Treasurer; J. Berger, George Schindler, August Roettes, George Labricht, Harry Bramlage and Alphonse Schriete. The annual report showed that $6,000 had been paid for pew rent during 1907, considerably more than last year.

SELECT DANCES.

The Bright Eyes Club has arranged to give a series of select dances at Nadoff's Hall, Eighteenth and Kentucky streets, on the evenings of February 4, 8, 15, 22 and 29. Schnermer's orchestra will furnish the music. H. Dumas, A. Hans, A. Coomes and F. Schnermer are the committee in charge of the arrangements.

QUITS FOR THE ALTAR.

John Burke, one of the best pitchers that the Newark Eastern League baseball team had on its roster a few years ago, will be ordained to the priesthood next April. While playing the game he made money to help support his parents and pay for his tuition.

UNITY COUNCIL'S DANCE.

Unity Council, Y. M. C. of New Albany, is preparing to give a select dance on the evening of February 10. The committee of arrangements plan to make it the most successful affair of the kind ever given by the council.

FRANCE LOSES GROUND.

As Germany becomes Catholic she grows strong. In 1850 Germany and France were equal in population; now Germany has 62,000,000 against France's 39,000,000. The comparison is the worse for France when it is remembered that France has more foreigners in it than any other Continental nation.

MORE SUNSET EXCURSIONS.

Mackin Council's Gymnasium Club has taken initial steps toward arranging for a series of sunset excursions during the coming spring and summer. The excursions last year proved very successful and it is intended to make them more entertaining than ever this year.

PILGRIMAGES ABANDONED.

The correspondent of the "German" in the Eternal City, states that the April pilgrimage to Rome, which was arranged for at the last German Catholic Congress, and in which many of the Bishops were to join, has been abandoned.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest

Members Here and Elsewhere.

At O'Neil, Neb., the Knights have completed a new $15,000 club house.

Grand Knight Lynch conferred the second degree on twenty candidates last week at Syracuse.

Oklahoma Knights are working to the end that "Landing day," October 12, will be made a State holiday.

Knights figure prominently in the New Jersey Senate. Both the President and Temporary Chairman are members of the order.

Memphis Knights gave a card party last week and realized a nice sum for the fitting up of a house for the Franciscan Sisters of St. Mary's school.

Judge John Rear, Lecturer for Bishop Carroll Council at Covington, has booked splendid attractions for the meetings for the next three months.

Receipts of a banquet recently served by the Toledo Council netted the sum of $520, which amount the Knights generously turned over to the Sisters of the Good Shepherd.

Fully 400 Knights were present at the banquet that followed the installation of officers by Fort Wayne's council.

THEATRICAL.

"The Road to Yesterday," with Minnie Dupree and a splendid cast of favorites is announced for three nights and a Wednesday matinee at Macaulay's, beginning Monday. "The Road to Yesterday" comes direct from a long and successful run at the Herald Square Theater, New York City.

Joseph Conyers, the noted actor, will be seen at the Masonic Theater next week in his successful comedy drama, "The New Minister." This will be the first presentation of the piece in Louisville, but it comes with a record of numerous triumphs in the larger Eastern cities.

Miss Hortense Nielson, in "The Doll House," will appear at Macaulay's during the latter half of next week.

GOES TO FRANKFORT.

Daniel F. Murphy, of the Fidelity Trust Company, formerly City Assessor of Louisville, and one of the best informed real estate men in the South, will appear before a committee of the Kentucky Legislature to urge the passage of the bill introduced by Hon. Albert Charlton, which provides for an extension of time for the payment of apportionment warrants.

GRAND PRIZE EUCHRE.

St. Joseph's Dramatic Club will give a grand prize euchre at St. Joseph's school hall, Washington street, between Webster and Adams, Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock sharp.

DIOCESAN SYNOD.

In Cologne Cathedral last week it was announced that a Diocesan Synod would be held there during the course of the year. The last Diocesan Synod in the Dom took place in 1668.

SOLEMN CEREMONY.

Cardinal Gibbons Confers
the Pallium on Archbishop O'Donnell.

The pallium was conferred upon Archbishop O'Donnell, of Boston, at the Cathedral in that city Wednesday morning. His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons performed the ceremony. Several hundred priests and nearly all the prelates of the New England States assisted at the religious function. Archbishop O'Donnell was an altar boy at the Cathedral thirty-three years ago when the pallium was conferred on his illustrious predecessor, Archbishop Williams.

The pallium is a woolen stole made of lamb's wool and is an insignia of archiepiscopal authority. The ceremony of conferring the pallium is always marked by great solemnity. The Boston Cathedral was crowded by people of all creeds and nationalities to witness the interesting and impressive rite.

Archbishop O'Donnell is devoted to charity and has ever a watchful eye on the many charitable institutions in his archdiocese. Only recently he issued a pastoral forbidding any priest or other religious from collecting funds without his permission. He found that many of the charitable institutions were in a deplorable condition financially and that persons from other dioceses were collecting money from his flock that was needed at home.

GRAND OLD MAN.

Dennis Kehoe Lived to See
Three Sons in the Priesthood.

Dennis Kehoe, one of the most respected residents of Newport, Ky., passed away at his home there last Saturday at the age of eighty-two. He was for years one of the most prominent distillers in Kentucky, but having amassed a competency he retired a few years ago. Before his death Mr. Kehoe had the pleasure to see three of his sons elevated to the dignity of the priesthood.

During the greater part of his life he had been a zealous member of the Church of the Immaculate Conception and was present at the laying of the corner stone of that edifice. Mr. Kehoe always gave generously toward charity and was proud of his three boys who attained sacerdotal honors. His sons are Rev. Thomas A. Kehoe, pastor of St. James' church, Ludlow; Rev. Frank Kehoe, pastor of St. Anthony's church, Bellevue; and the late Rev. James Kehoe, of Newport. The funeral took place from the Church of the Immaculate Conception Tuesday morning and nearly every priest in Covington, Newport and surrounding territory assisted at the obsequies.

TRINITY COUNCIL'S PLANS.

Trinity Council, Y. M. I., held another splendid meeting Monday night with Vice President Andy Kieffer presiding. Of course the absence of President James B. Kelly was regretted, but when it became known that he was attending to that great charity, the Old Fashioned Fair, his delinquency was forgiven for the time being. Acting President Kieffer disposed of quite a lot of routine business and promised the President Kelly would be on hand next week with quite a lot of plans for the future. It is expected that the matter of completing the club house will be discussed if not actually undertaken.

DISCOURAGES PILGRIMAGES.

This is the jubilee year of Pope Pius X., and in many countries pilgrimages to Rome are being arranged. The Holy Father is not encouraging these religious demonstrations on account of the anti-clerical feeling in the Eternal City. He prefers that the people should celebrate his jubilee in their respective countries, but if they insist on going to Rome, he wants them to take the precaution to have their respective governments guarantee safe conduct while in Italy.

MINERAL WATERS.

"Purak" is the name given a number of waters and beverages just put on the local market, for which is claimed a purity, taste and satisfaction that can not be excelled. Under the direction of Superintendent Kane a plant that cost over $50,000 has been installed at its seventh street in connection with the Merchants Ice and Cold Storage Company, which is now in operation and open for public inspection.

FIVE CANDY KIDS.

Nadoff's Hall, at the Northeast corner of Eighteenth and Kentucky streets, will be a festive scene on the night of February 18, when the Five Candy Kids give their next ball. The music will be rendered by Kelly's Fox Ridge Band and the committee on arrangements is made up of such well known young men as E. Horn, L. Kessler, J. Melhaus, Ed. Wittenauer and Fred Kessler. It will be a mask and fancy dress affair.

SAVED CHILDREN'S LIVES.

John Dalton and Robert Cummings, members of the Louisville police force, saved the lives of two children and doubtless prevented a conflagration on Tuesday when they broke into the home of James Glenn, 1434 Twelfth street, and found Leo Glenn, seven years old, and Mary, four years old, unconscious from smoke. The parents of the children were away from home.

SEXTON'S NEW CAFE.

John Sexton, the former detective, has opened a cafe at the southwest corner of Seventh and Oak streets. Rick Quinn's old stand, and is already doing a nice business. Mr. Sexton was connected with the Louisville police and detective force for nineteen years and proved to be a faithful and capable officer. His cafe promises to be one of the most popular in Limerick.
